

Michaud Equipment LTD. is currently looking for a
Manufacturing General Laborer

Position Description – Manufacturing General Laborer

Reports to - Shop supervisor

Summary of Position – The Manufacturing general laborer will be required to perform tasks involving physical labor in a manufacturing environment. He or she will be required to operate a variety of hand and power tools. The general laborer will be responsible for the efficient production of products according to established procedures, following all safety protocols and workplace procedures.

Core Competencies - the successful Candidate must display the following attributes as a core part of their interaction while working for the company.

- Needs to be on time for work
- Must conduct Himself / Herself with Best Safety Practices
- Takes direction well.
- Is able to work well alone or with others
- Displays respectfulness in all aspects of his relationship with other employees
- Allows minimal Non-Production Interruptions
- Works productively
- Works safely in a fast-paced environment.
- Shows problem solving ability
- Is adaptable and flexible.
- Is coachable
- Shows a desire and willingness to learn new tasks

Requirements for the Job and Work Environment – it is important that the successful candidate has developed a skill set through his / her education and / or work experience. This skill set allows them to be capable of performing the assortment of tasks required of them with a high degree of accuracy and quality within the work environment. Attributes we feel allow for this output are not limited too but are contained within the list below:

- Clean and preform task for preparation of work area.
- Grind and clean parts as per procedures.
- Sorting, marking, and organizing parts from cut lists or assembly lists
- Can easily work with fractions and / or decimals.
- Experience using a variety of tools such as grinders, sanders, cutters, etc.
- Has experience with the operation of a fork lift in a safe and effective manner.
- Comfortable working in a noisy environment.,
- Has no issue keeping equipment and work area clean
- Understands and is willing to perform preventative maintenance functions on equipment he or she is trained to work on.
- Is willing to adjust workflow to be responsive to manufacturing and Service Customers.
- Has no issues lifting or handling pcs up to 50 lb
- Has developed good working practices regarding safety equipment, such as eye protection, hearing protection, etc.
- Communicates well.
- Is a team player.
- Has no issues with standing for the duration of the shift.

Educational / Work Experience — Has successfully completed a High School or GED program. Years of related experience is an asset but not mandatory.

* Wage will be based on our assessment of the successful candidate.*

If you are interested, please send us your resume:

Email:

bryan@michaudequipment.com

Or

In person:

410 Ouellette St.

Grand-Sault/Grand Falls New Brunswick E3Z 0C9

Canada

NOTE: Only successful applicants will be notified.

